Johnson will provide opening remarks before the roundtables are broken into issue areas in small group roundtable discussions with leadership and subject matter experts from City departments. Residents will have the opportunity to elevate their top equity concerns to support City staff in prioritizing their budget requests.

Topic areas may include:

- Affordable Housing/Homelessness
- Public Health/Mental Health
- Community Safety
- Neighborhood/Community Development and Arts/Culture
- Environmental Justice/Infrastructure
- Immigration

To register for the roundtables, please access links above or go to <http://chicago.gov/2024budget>. Pre-registration is requested but not required. ASL and live captioning will be available. If you require language interpretation or any other accommodation, please contact communityengagement@cityofchicago.org by Friday, July 14.
